Instructor: Brad Umpleby

This course will cover literature, writing, grammar, and vocabulary for entering freshmen or students newly admitted to The Vanguard School. Students in this class will read a novel as well as various short stories and poems and learn a variety of Grammar concepts. Writing in this course will be completed mostly through weekly, in-class writing assignments. A typed, five-paragraph thesis paper will be the culminating assignment of the course. Students will be required to complete a daily grammar assignment, read the text, and answer accompanying questions as homework. Students taking this course as a credit recovery will also be required to complete a final exam.

The six-week intensive English tutorial will include Antigone, and Frankenstein, as well as various short stories and poems by which students will learn new vocabulary. Grammar concepts taught in this course include a refresher on parts of speech and in-depth instruction of subject complements, phrases, and clauses. This program is best for students who struggled throughout the school year in English classes or failed to complete an English placement exam.

History

June 6 – July 15 (6 weeks, 60 hours); 8:00 A.M. – 10:00 A.M.

CREDIT RECOVERY

For rising 10th – 12th-grade students

Instructor: Adonis Jaramillo

This course will be action packed, covering the core content students learn in 9th and 10th grades. In the first week, the class will cover western civilization to roughly the end of the Roman Empire. The following week, we will get to the end of the late Middle Ages. Week three will have the students covering material as close to modernity as possible. The second half of each class will be used to work on the research skills that are imparted on the students throughout their freshmen and sophomore years. In particular, the class will focus on thesis writing, annotated bibliographies, and outline development.

Music History

June 6 – June 24 (3 weeks, 60 hours); 8:00 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.

FINE ARTS CREDIT (for graduation requirement)

For all incoming 9th – 12th-grade students

Instructor: Frank Fyock

This is a one semester course is designed to help students begin to understand the essential elements of classic western music from pre-history to the present, through an analysis of the student's personal musical aesthetical perspective and how it fits in context with a larger world historical aesthetic. This course is required for graduation from The Vanguard School and now can be taken during the summer to open space in your school year schedule for alternative electives.

Art History

June 6 – July 15 (6 weeks, 60 hours)

**Virtual/Online Format****

FINE ARTS CREDIT (for graduation requirement)

For all incoming 9th – 12th-grade students

Instructor: Emily Tigges

This is a one semester course that offers a chronological survey of Western art from the dawn of civilization to the modern era. Although there is an effort to involve students with images and ideas that lie outside the Western tradition, the larger context in which these images are discussed is Western. The course combines proper historical techniques and procedures with an emphasis on the unique position and role played by the artist and the work of art, its context, and the critic. Special attention is given to our interpretation of a work of art based upon its intended use, audience, and role in society. The course will also focus on how works of art shaped, and were shaped by western social, political, economic, and intellectual history. As a survey course, the material is approached as an introduction to the discipline. Two goals of the course are to encourage the student to pursue further study in college as well as become versed in the visual language of art.
