Our Week of Learning

Character Corner

 when you choose
 joy
 You feel good & when you feel
 good, you do good & when you do good
 it reminds others
 of what joy feels like & it just might inspire
 them to do the same.

Latin: We have successfully finished our end of quarter. We are proud of the work they have done.

History: We have finished our unit on African Kingdoms. We will start Dynasties of China after Winter Break.

Science: In science we will finish up our unit on meteorology. We will move on to chemistry next. December 21, Jupiter and Saturn, our biggest planets in the solar system, will be very close together. They will look like one star. Some say they will look like the Christmas star of Bethlehem.
